2019 MARCOM
GOLD
WINNER

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idcmarketing

2019 MARCOM
GOLD
WINNER

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idcmarketing

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idcmarketing

2019 MARCOM GOLD WINNER

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idc marketing

SWITCHING POSITIONS

You've probably already heard that fewer than 2% of NCAA student-athletes go on to be professional athletes. But maybe you haven't heard about all the exciting career possibilities for individuals who earn an advanced business degree.

Human Resources
- HR Manager ..... $76K - $107K
- Human Capital Consultant ..... $73K - $94K

Supply Chain
- Supply Chain Manager ..... $89K - $117K
- Demand Planner ..... $69K - $91K

Marketing
- Creative Director $123K- $201K
- Marketing Manager ..... $81K - $115K

Business Management
- Management Consultant ..... $105K - $143K
- Business Operations Manager ..... $72K - $104K

Financial Services
- Financial Planner ..... $57K - $96K
- Financial Analyst ..... $66K - $89K

Accounting
- Accounting Manager ..... $88K - $119K
- Accounting Supervisor ..... $78K - $104K

Economics
- Actuary ..... $105K - $136K
- Economist ..... $102K - $154K

Business Analytics
- Data Scientist ..... $117K - $157K
- Quantitative Analyst ..... $116K - $173K

(GoJuliaHeor.com)

"Former athletes tend to have higher-status careers and earn about 5-15% more than non-athletes—an advantage that doesn't exist for any other extracurricular activity."
(USAToday, 2017)

"A deciding factor for me was Krannert's high rankings. As a graduate school, Krannert is demanding yet rewarding, which makes it a good fit for student-athletes because it pushes us to reach our best potential."

CARMIESHA COX, MS in Human Resources Management, 2019
INTEREST: DEVELOPING ORGANIZATIONAL TALENT AND TEAMS

A 2016 Olympic sprinter representing her home-nation (The Bahamas) in the 4x400 relay, Cox is also a certified graduate of the John Wooden Leadership Institute. She loves approaching HR with a gender-inclusive, justice-oriented framework.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idcmarketing

2019 MARCOM
GOLD
WINNER

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY
Krannert School of Management

idcmarketing